RACING GOSSIP.

Every grade of humanity is pestered by various insects. Among them may be included the thing which writes anonymous letters. It is especially busy about racing and its offerings treat of general scandal, which cannot be proven and is generally out of joint with what occurs. Sometimes the insect seeks to prey on DAILY RACING FORM. One of the meanest of the horde, taking the plural form for purposes of deception—which does not deceive—sent his "green goods" display to this office a day or two ago. It objected to the errors of a new clerk in last Tuesday's paper. They were corrected in time to prevent general error. The insect—under discussion—to make its game stronger complained of other errors in our figures, but made no display of them and whined—on a nickel basis—because at times it had to buy two papers to "scrap book" all its form. It lied over the general mathematical incorrectness. Each index number in chart and entry is checked before the paper goes to press each night. A few errors are made. Why not? DAILY RACING FORM keeps an individual account with some 4,000 racehorses. Each account goes to performances, scratches, owners, jockeys, winnings etc. Few business houses cover so wide a field in the way of statistics. The special wires of DAILY RACING FORM begin to work about 6:15 p.m. By 10:45 p.m. the paper is off our presses. At times six charts are handled in the fullest way. Five is the average. With them comes the news of each racing day and some five or six sets of entries. Such action is even faster than that of a bookmaker. If the insect which signs itself "Justified Kickers" will come to the office I'll waste time enough on it to mirror insectism as it acquires chirography and incorrect news of the turf and newspaperdom. At the same time, too, a newsboy or two can be acquired to give the same insect a line on human manners and probity. DAILY RACING FORM is as correct as it can be. It tries to do its honest best all the time. It errs. Who and what does not? But compared to other papers which claim to report the American turf of every day it is a sun to a candle. Insects are singed in the flame from the lights of both.

The Enquirer "tips" of last Saturday covered thirty races. DAILY RACING FORM's notions spread over the same field. Here are the results:

The recent Newport meeting was a decided success and a credit to Secretary J. Gratz Hanly, whose popularity cut a deep figure in the patronage the meeting received. It ran 33 days, and distributed $43,250. Only 31 stables won over $500. These were:

Sir Dilke, with $1,050, was the leader in the winning horse list. Britton, with 36 wins; Russell, 24; Sherrin, 14; Fowler, 12, and J. Gardner, 10, were the most successful jockeys.

FAVORITES FAIL IN THE MUD.

The Harlem Stable people got a bit of expensive experience yesterday. Their has been Ajax was in the third Ideal Park race and with Caesarian out of the way he seemed to have the purse at his mercy. The stable, however, was looking for a price and put W. Stewart up.

They got their price—as good as 8 to 5—but not the purse. Stewart proved a bad experiment, and doing the best he could to stick on, landed in second place. Gustave Cook won the race rather handsly. Ajax was much the best and could not have lost had he been properly handled. Mr. Oliver, a member of the firm, bet $800 on the horse, and after the race he ordered young Stewart away from the stable.

The track was slough and winners hard to pick. Semper Lex and Bombardon, who seemed to be the best things on the card, failed and the ring had a good day. Her Excellency's defeat of Bombardon was the afternoon's racing feature and surprise. The filly's recent races have been far from good, yet backed from 8 to 1. to 5 to 1. she ran gamely under Caywood, and through good racing luck managed to win by a short head.

Semper Lex was naturally at odds-on for the nine furlong race, and performed well, but Sunburst, who was right at home in the going and well handled by Caywood, defeated him rather handsly on the end.

Jockey Ham arrived from Windsor and won his first mount on Thurston. He is a welcome addition to the local riding brigade.

Charlie Carmichael's Cash Day is at Ideal Park and will be handled by Sam Hildreth. The speedy son of Strathmore—Dawn of Day looks good and it is likely that he will train on. He goes to California for the winter campaign.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Eastern colt Chum, in J. W. Rogers' band, is a full brother to Lucania.

August Clason's Leonore is a sister to the insane Merry Nell and as crazy as her relative.

Bill Smith, Pittsburg Phil's brother, has bought Belmar and Beldemere from the Preakness stable.

Clifford broke down in his work at Gravesend a day or two ago and isn't likely to race again this year.

Clifford is doing well and is to be used for the valuable stakes later in the present Brooklyn meeting and that at Morris Park.

While at work on the Sheephead Bay track last Wednesday a wild yearling ran against and nearly killed Typhoon II.

H. J. Woodford, now racing Buck Knight and others at the Kentucky-Ohio tracks, owned and operated Barnum through his best racing period.

Charade will no more trouble the public. He let down badly last Wednesday at Gravesend and is to be retired and used as a sire.

The Windsor meeting will be continued until November 1 on the basis of success. Several carloads of horses have been shipped to Windsor from Newport, Ky.

J. E. Seagram, the Canadian turfman, bought Princess Flavia from the Keenes before last Saturday's race at Brooklyn. The filly is a giant and should make a grand three-year-old.

The Latonia fall meeting opens October 1 and closes November 7—thirty-three days. Louisville will hold no fall meeting. After Latonia, Lexington will hold a short meeting and probably conflict with Nashville.

Theodore Winters has sold the yearling filly by Joe Hooker—Marion, sister to Yo Ambien, to the El Primero Stable of San Francisco. Old Marion is 25 years old and still in good health.

Mike Dwyer's Western "bargains" outside of Cleophus have all gone wrong. Lady Inez has gone to nose hemorrhage, and Suisun will not "do." Ben Eder is now almost a confirmed sulker. Of late he has been raced in blinkers.

The yearlings of Col. J. B. Malone, formerly presiding judge at Hawthorne, will be sold at St. Louis next Saturday. The stars of the band are two Top Gallant colts and a couple of fillies by Tremont—one a half sister to Scorch and the other a full sister to Lake Shore.

In these days of ours yearlings are being sampled, and when for sale are going quarters in 23 1/2 seconds or so and furlongs in less than 12 seconds with a ton or more on their backs. Some are even bold and brave enough to show three furlongs in 35 1/2 seconds, and the "real bargains" do halves in 47 1/2. "And the band played on."

Bookmaker George Rose has purchased of John Mackey, manager of Rancho del Paso, Torsina, bay filly 3, by Torso—Bergen W (Bertie

W.) by Leamington; Celestea, bay filly, 2, by Maxim—Angelique, by Darebin or Warwick; Tea Rose, chestnut filly, 2, by Midlothian, dam by Lancastrian; Geyser, brown colt, 2, by Ben Ali—Hot Spring, by Rebel; and of J. B. Haggin, proprietor of Rancho del Paso, bay filly, 2, by Maxim—Ventura, by Virgil, and bay filly, 2, by Fitz James—Minuet, by Norfolk. It is said to be a choice lot.
